Dear Valued Customer,

Ref.: Welcoming Karmelle Ltd: Expanding Adelphi's Capabilities in Liquid Packaging

We are excited to announce that The Adelphi Group has completed the acquisition of Karmelle Ltd, specialists in liquid packaging.

This strategic step reflects our ongoing commitment to delivering the very best in British engineering and customer service. Like Adelphi Masterfil, Karmelle has earned its reputation for precision-built machinery, reliability, and long-standing customer partnerships.

What does this mean for you?

You can expect:

- Enhanced technical capabilities
- A broader product portfolio
- Greater flexibility in meeting your liquid filling and packaging needs

Together, Adelphi and Karmelle will provide more comprehensive, end-to-end solutions while continuing to uphold the service excellence, responsiveness, and engineering integrity you value.

Both companies share a passion for UK manufacturing, sustainable engineering, and building trusted, long-term customer relationships. This collaboration will strengthen the support we can provide your business, today and into the future.

Please rest assured that both Adelphi and Karmelle will continue to operate as usual, ensuring a smooth transition and uninterrupted service. If you have any questions or would like to learn more about what this development means for your operations, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Thank you, as always, for your continued trust and support.

Warm regards,

Chris Wilson
Managing Director
